

Power Profile

Bill (William S.) Rimes
Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer

My job responsibilities include:
implementing the policies of the board of trustees, total responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the Birthdate and birthplace: My secret; Savannah, Ga.

Number of years at WFEC:
Three (Sometimes feels like 33).

Children: Angela, Daniel and McLain

These are a few of my favorite things:

Movies: The classics such as Bridge Over the River Kwai, To Kill a Mockingbird, and more recently, A River Runs Through It

Television: A & E, The Discovery Channel, The History Channel, CNN, The O'Riley Factor

Food: Things my grandparents grew and raised on their farm

Types of music: Raised on the Grand Ol' Opry, Celtic, even some Classical, and a little Van Morrison

Entertainers: Vince Gill, Sarah McLaughlin, Robert Redford, even our Gil Perea

One thing I can't stand is: politicians, CEOs or managers who abuse their power and trust.

In my spare time, I like to: keep informed about international affairs, play with my dogs (Jack and Jane Russells), and please my wife.

My most prized material possessions are:
photo albums, my dad's carpentry tools and my mother's bedroom furniture.

If I won the Florida lottery tomorrow, I'd:
Revisit all the neat places I've lived in the Pacific and Europe during my 30 years in the Air Force; perhaps do something special in our area for the elderly, especially those in nursing homes.

I hope I never have to: attend any more funerals for my family members.

The Eleventh Commandment should be: Help me keep the first ten — I've had a little trouble with some of them.

One person I'd like to meet is: Rev. Billy Graham — What an inspirational man.

The motto I try to live by is: "Conduct the business of the Cooperative as if all 20,000 member-owners were watching," or my mother's motto, which was "No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted."
